SECRET IDENTITY PICTURES ACQUIRES AWARD WINNING INDIE THE IN-BETWEEN.

LOS ANGELES (October 28, 2020)— Secret Identity Pictures has acquired Worldwide rights to Bledska Work's THE IN-BETWEEN, directed by Mindy Bledsoe, written by Mindy Bledsoe, Rob Senska, and Jennifer Stone and produced by Chris Lyon, Mindy Bledsoe, Rob Senska, Jennifer Stone and Blayne Weaver.

Two women set out on a road trip with different missions. Mads (Jennifer Stone of Wizards of Waverly Place) needs to renew her driver's license in South Dakota, while Junior (writer/director Mindy Bledsoe) needs to visit Portland, Oregon on a quest for her dead sister. Both women have medical issues that cause friction along the way, but they never let those problems define their identities. Mads is also keeping a secret from Junior, a secret that could explode at any moment and ruin their journey.

"We're really thrilled to be working on this touching, funny and important film. It's a privilege to bring this film to viewers," said Blayne Weaver of Secret identity Pictures. "The In-Between tells a story of two strong female characters, both struggling with internal demons and invisible illness".

"I have Complex Regional Pain Syndrome, which is classed as the most painful chronic pain condition," says writer, director and actress Mindy Bledsoe. "Jennifer is Type 1 Diabetic. We've often discussed our illnesses and how few understand the struggles that come with daily life. I wanted to explore that in this film and give the audience a peek into the lives of those living with invisible illness."

The In-Between has won over a dozen awards on the film festival circuit in all categories, including Best Film, Best Director, Best Ensemble, Best Actress, Best Supporting Actress and Best Supporting Actor. The film stars Mindy Bledsoe (Hard Broads), Jennifer Stone (Wizards of Waverly Place), Rane Jameson (The Experience, Lucifer).

Secret Identity will present the film for international markets at the American Film Market in November.
